

New Individual tax agent registration application – for individuals who are seeking to only provide tax (financial) advice services

Item 207 in Schedule 2 of the Tax Agent Services Regulations 2022 – Tertiary qualifications

Essential information

You may apply to register as an individual tax agent under the Tax Agent Services Regulations 2022, item 207. If you are registered under this item, it is likely that a condition will be imposed on your registration that limits you to providing tax (financial) advice services only.

Before you start the application, ensure you have the following information.

Registration requirement

To be a registered tax agent, an individual must:

- be over 18 years of age
- be a fit and proper person
- maintain, or be able to maintain, professional indemnity insurance
- meet the qualification and experience requirements; and
- be a licensee or a representative of a licensee (or have been within the preceding 90 days).

For information visit Registering as an individual tax agent to provide tax \(financial\) advice services

Fit and proper

You must satisfy the fit and proper person requirements. You must inform us of any events in the last 5 years that may affect your eligibility for registration, including overdue tax obligations. For more information visit Fit and proper requirements

Professional indemnity insurance

Professional indemnity (PI) insurance is a consumer protection mechanism to compensate your clients in the event they suffer loss due to an act, error or omission as a result of tax agent services you provide.

You must meet the Tax Practitioners Board's (TPB) PI insurance requirements which is that you maintain, or will be able to maintain, PI insurance that meets our requirements. For information on PI insurance visit tpb.gov.au/pii.

If you have your own PI insurance cover, you will need the:

- policy number
- name of insurer
- start and end date of the policy; and
- amount of cover.

If you are covered by the PI insurance policy of another registered tax practitioner, you need the registered tax practitioner's:

- name; and
- policy number.

You may notify us of your PI insurance details in your application. Otherwise, if registration is granted, you must, within 14 days from the day you are notified about registration, provide us with your PI insurance details.

If you do not provide the details within that time, or you fail to maintain PI insurance that meets our requirements, your registration may be terminated.

Registration condition

If we grant your application for registration as a tax agent under item 207, we may impose a tax (financial) advice services condition on this registration under subsections 20-25(5) to (7) of the Tax Agent Services Act 2009.

Professional association membership

If you are a member of a recognised professional association you need your membership number. You may need to upload evidence of your membership if you are a voting member. For information on recognised professional associations visit tpb.gov.au/recognised-professional-associations.

Experience and qualifications

Experience

You must have been engaged in the equivalent of 12 months of full-time relevant tax (financial) advice experience in the last 5 years. To demonstrate your experience, you must upload with your application a:

- statement(s) of relevant tax (financial) advice experience (SRE), or
- statutory declaration outlining why you cannot provide a SRE, as well as two independent references from clients or colleagues.

Education

To meet the requirements under item 207, you must have:

- been awarded a degree or a post-graduate award from an Australian tertiary institution (or a degree or award that is approved by the Board from an equivalent institution) in a 'relevant discipline'
- completed a Board approved course in commercial law; and
- completed a Board approved course in Australian taxation law.

Note: A 'relevant discipline' includes: finance, financial planning, commerce, economics, business, tax, accountancy or law.

For information visit Qualifications and experience to provide tax \(financial\) advice services.

Qualifications check

You must provide full details of courses and units, including the year completed in your application.

Before completing your application, you should check your completed units at the 'Qualifications Search' option at tpb.gov.au/qas to confirm that you meet the qualifications requirements under item 207.

Board approved courses

Evidence of completed Board approved courses you provide will be used in the assessment of your application. If there is a shortfall, we may contact you to provide further information. If you are unable to provide additional information to support your application, then it is unlikely that you will meet the qualification requirements.

Yes, complete the below section.

Provide details about the event including the year it occurred.

Explain why this event should not adversely affect your eligibility to be registered.

h) We must also consider if the individual is of good fame, integrity and character. We expect that a fit and proper individual will make full disclosure to it about any matters that may affect their good fame, integrity and character. This would include, but is not limited to, disclosing if they:

- have been subject to any disciplinary action and/or adverse findings by a court, regulator, government body, professional association or in another profession or occupation
- are subject to current complaints or investigations by a regulator, government body, professional association or in another profession or occupation; and
- are currently facing charges including in relation to fraud or dishonesty or taxation offences.

Do you have matters that may have affected your good fame, integrity and character (including those listed above) to disclose?

Provide details about the matter(s) including the year it/they occurred.

Explain why this/these matter(s) should not adversely affect your eligibility to be registered.

Note: upload additional information you want considered with your application at tpb.gov.au/apply-register-provide-tax-financial-advice-services.

14. Tax obligations

Under the Code in the TASA, registered tax practitioners must comply with the taxation laws in the conduct of their 'personal affairs'.

'Personal affairs' includes the affairs of all associated entities of a registered tax practitioner and any entity that the registered tax practitioner has direct or indirect control over.

This includes associated companies, trusts (including corporate trustees of the trusts), a self-managed superannuation fund that the tax practitioner is trustee of and/or partnerships.

If you or any associated entities that you have direct, or indirect control over, have overdue tax obligations, this may affect your eligibility to be registered. It is a requirement to meet the following by the due dates:

- Lodgement of all required forms with the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) including income tax returns, activity statements and payment summaries.
- Payment of all required amounts to the ATO (or be subject to an agreed payment plan).
- Lodgement or debt obligations in relation to Superannuation and Superannuation Guarantee (if applicable).

Do you or any associated entities that you have direct, or indirect control over, have overdue tax obligations?

No, go to Question (15). Yes, complete the below section.

You must provide us with details about the overdue tax obligations and your payment plan, including the:

- name of Individual, company or partnership
- type and period of overdue lodgements
- type and amount of debt not subject to an approved ATO payment plan; and
- lodgement or debt obligations in relation to SuperStream and Superannuation Guarantee (if applicable).

Enter the details about the overdue tax obligations.

Explain why they should not adversely affect eligibility to be registered.
