Privacy notice

The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (www.oaic.gov.au) is Australia's national privacy regulator. The Privacy Act 1988 protects the privacy of individuals and sets out Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) applicable to the collection, use and storage of personal information by Australian government agencies.

The Tax Practitioners Board (TPB) will use the information collected from you in order to assess the application for registration under Part 2 of the Tax Agent Services Act 2009 (TASA).

Section 60-15 of the TASA allows the TPB to do anything incidental or conducive to the performance of its functions, which includes the collection of information in relation to an applicant's relevant experience for the purposes of registration under the TASA.

The personal information collected will be used and stored in accordance with the APPs.

If you do not provide the requested information we may not be able to process the application.

If you are completing this form as a supervising agent or employer, some of the information collected from you may be provided to the applicant applying for registration and other government agencies, including the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

If you are completing this form as an applicant, some of the information collected from you may be provided to other government agencies including the ATO and third parties relevant to the application.

This may occur, for example, in order to verify the information you have provided and only where we are authorised under the TASA to do so and it is considered to be relevant to the processing of the application.

Further information about our privacy practices is available in our privacy policy on our website www.tpb.gov.au

For any enquiries relating to our collection, use and storage of your information, including how to access and correct your information or to make a privacy complaint, please contact the TPB privacy officer at TPBLegalunit@tpb.gov.au
